Are you feeling stressed? Has this ever impacted you differently or more strongly than your peers? Have you considered how well-being may differ depending on personal experiences?

The CSE Undergraduate Advising Office is partnering with the CSE DEI Committee to host an event that will explore the intersection of DEI (Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion) and Wellness. Please join us to view a short TedTalk and engage in a conversation regarding how identity impacts many different dimensions of well-being.

WHO: CSE Undergraduate and Graduate students (all students are welcome)

WHAT: View and discuss the TEDTalk: Rethinking Diversity & Inclusion as a Health Dilemma | Atira Charles | TEDxTallahassee in small and large groups.
